A large rectangular area defined by a thick black dotted border. Inside this area, there are two horizontal rows of small gray squares, serving as a guide for handwriting practice. On the right side of this area, there is a circular dotted frame containing a cartoon illustration of a drum with two drumsticks.

A second large rectangular area, identical to the one above, also defined by a thick black dotted border. It contains two horizontal rows of small gray squares for handwriting practice and a circular dotted frame on the right containing a cartoon illustration of a drum with two drumsticks.
